DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SERVICE'S RESPONSE TO MOTION TO INTERVENE OF SANDRA BAIRD, ESQ., JARED CARTER, ESQ., DEAN CORREN, STEVEN GOODKIND, SOLVEIG OVERBY, ESQ., AND SHAY TOTTEN

On March 28, 2018, Sandra Baird, Esq., Jared Carter, Esq., Dean Corren, Steven Goodkind, Solveig Overby, Esq., and Shay Totten (collectively, the "Burlington Residents") jointly filed a motion with the Public Utility Commission (the "Commission") to intervene in this proceeding. The Department of Public Service (the "Department") reviewed the Burlington Residents' motion and does not oppose their request to intervene in this proceeding. However, it is unclear from their motion whether the Burlington Residents seek intervention status individually or jointly as a group. Therefore, although the Department does not oppose the motion, in the interests of economy of adjudication, the Department requests that the Commission require that Burlington Residents be joined for their participation in this case pursuant to Rule 2.209(C) should the Commission grant them intervention status.

Dated at Montpelier, Vermont, this 30th day of March, 2018.
