WEC'S CONSENTED TO MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME

Washington Electric Cooperative, Inc. (WEC), pursuant to PUC Rule 2.207 and V.R.C.P. 6(b) moves to enlarge the time set for filing its revised tariffs.

On December 19, 2019 the Commission issued its Order Approving Rate Design with Implementation in Three Phases (Order). The Order provides, in part, that: "Within 7 days, WEC shall file tariffs in compliance with this Order that reflect the approved rate design, the appropriate effective date, and any other tariff changes if applicable." Order at 13, ¶ 3.

WEC seeks to enlarge this 7-day period to January 17, 2020. This 7-day period includes a weekend and the Christmas holiday. See V.R.C.P. 6(a)(1)(B). WEC needs to consult with its expert, Jason Strong, to recalculate the tariffs. WEC also needs to coordinate rate design implementation with its pending request for a 5.95% rate increase (Case No. 19-4576-TF). These tasks require greater time and would be difficult to complete over the Christmas week.

I consulted with Dan Burke on December 19, 2019 who authorized me to state that the Department of Public Service consents to this motion.
