

Name	Purpose	App or Award Date	Status	Funding Amount
US DOE Long Duration Energy Storage Demonstration	Partner with NOMAD on mobile energy storage to five communities in rural VT	8/2/23	Awarded; currently in DOE grant negotiation process	$19 million full project cost; 50% cost share requirement. GMP share is approximately $6 million; performance period scheduled to run through June 2027.
US DOE Grid Resilience and Innovation Partnership	Second round proposed project is to implement several complete Zero Outage circuits	Application due 4/17	Pending full application; awards anticipated in Fall 2024	GMP is applying for a $80 million award with a 100% cost share, for a full project cost of $160 million
Vermont Energy Storage Access Program (ESAP)	Provides for energy storage to income-qualified Vermonters	8/14/23	Awarded; ESAP Rider before PUC, DPS agreement being finalized	$1.5 million to be deployed to customers that have medical equipment that need power or live in areas with greater outage frequency
Solar for All	Portion of grant application supports making home solar and storage easier for income qualified customers	Application by DPS submitted Fall 2023	Award notification expected in Spring 2024	Department of Public Service is the lead on this application. The proposed Residential Assistance in Solar Energy (RAISE) Program will use approx. $1M to provide solar and an estimated 2.2 MW of storage to income qualified customers.
DOE Grid Resilience State and Tribal Formula Grants	Grid resiliency projects	7/20/2023	DPS received first $6M	TBD. FY24 Grid Resilience State and Tribal Formula Grants application and allocation request period is open.