SCHEDULING CONFERENCE ORDER

This case concerns the tariff filing of Green Mountain Power Corporation (“GMP”) for approval of a proposed Zone 4 Energy Storage Program Service tariff.

On June 11, 2025, the Vermont Public Utility Commission (“Commission”) held a scheduling conference in this matter. Appearances were entered by Benjamin Civiletti, Esq., on behalf of the Vermont Department of Public Service (“Department”); and Geoffrey Hand, Esq., and Malachi Brennan, Esq., on behalf of GMP. In addition, the scheduling conference was attended by Joshua Castonguay of GMP.

At the scheduling conference, the parties discussed the proposed procedural schedule for this case. The schedule is adopted as follows:

| Date | Event |
|---------------|--|
| June 20, 2025 | Department serves first round of discovery on GMP |
| July 7, 2025 | GMP responds to first round of discovery (narrative responses to be filed in ePUC) |
| July 11, 2025 | Deadline for motions to intervene |
| July 14, 2025 | Department serves second round of discovery on GMP |
| July 16, 2025 | Responses to motions to intervene due ¹ |

¹ If the Commission grants any motions to intervene, parties will be directed to propose a revised schedule to provide opportunity for intervenors to serve discovery on GMP.

|--------------------|---|
| July 21, 2025 | GMP responds to second round of discovery (narrative responses to be filed in ePUC) |
| August 11, 2025 | Department files direct testimony |
| August 15, 2025 | Deadline for GMP and the Department to file any stipulations or agreements and to propose a process for additional proceedings, if necessary. |
| September 16, 2025 | Evidentiary Hearing (briefing schedule to be set at hearing) |

If motions for summary judgment are filed in this case, then, consistent with Commission Rule 2.219(B) and unless different deadlines are established by the Commission, (1) responses are due 30 days after the motion is filed; and (2) replies to any responses are due 14 days after the responses are filed. If motions to dismiss are filed in this case, then, consistent with Commission Rule 2.206(E), (1) responses are due 30 days after the motion is filed; and (2) replies to any responses are due 14 days after the responses are filed.² For any other motions, then, consistent with Commission Rule 2.206(E) and unless different deadlines are established by the Commission, (1) responses are due 14 days after the motion is filed; and (2) replies to any responses are due 14 days after the responses are filed. Consistent with Commission Rule 2.206(F), surreplies may only be filed with permission from the Commission.

Parties are reminded that documents submitted in pdf format should be in an “unlocked” format, i.e., searchable and extractable, rather than in an image format.

Members of the public interested in this proceeding may participate by submitting public comments or by intervening as a formal party to the case. Members of the public may also simply monitor the Commission’s actions in a specific case. Guidance on how to monitor, comment on, or actively participate in Commission proceedings is available in the document “Public Participation and Intervention in Proceedings before the Public Utility Commission,” which is available on the Commission's website at: <https://puc.vermont.gov/document/public-participation-and-intervention-proceedings-public-utility-commission>.

² Commission Rule 2.206(E) provides the Commission with discretion to set response and reply deadlines that differ from the 14 days normally provided by that rule.

Pursuant to 30 V.S.A. §§ 20 and 21, GMP will be responsible for court reporter costs incurred by the Commission during the course of this proceeding and billed back to GMP.

SO ORDERED.

Dated at Montpelier, Vermont, this 20th day of June, 2025.
