I'm writing to express my dismay about the GMP planned change in base rates for the period of 10/1/25 - 9/30/26.

I am a retired 72 year old senior on a fixed income and find myself wondering how I'm going to continue making ends meet in the middle as the cost of everything continues to increase, yet my income does not. I'm more fortunate than others as I do have a very small amount put away in investments, but in this economic climate there is no telling how long that little bit will last me. I can ill afford continued increases in any of my living expenses.

With that said I am logging my disagreement with a resounding "NO!" to this base rate increase.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Best,

Joanne St.John
