07/28/2025	Hebert, Karen A [PUBCOM]	I hope the new (Plan) GMP has filed a change for base rates is denied. 7.3% increase in these times is ridiculous for so many people to be able to absorb. Social security doesn't see increase like this! I continue to work to survive and now this? As it is, we just received a rate increase of .25% for the current energy/major storm adjustor line. All these increases will drive us out!	Filed
