Case No. 21-3587-NMP

Motion to Continue Hearing Date

NOW COME Neighbors/Intervenors Dan & Jenn Goulet, Samin Kim & Jayoung Joo, Stephen Gorman, John & Heather Benson, Laurence & Shelley Ufford, and Joy Kenseth, by and through their attorney, L. Brooke Dingleline, Esquire of the law firm Valsangiacomo, Detora & McQuesten, P.C., and respectfully moves the Public Utility Commission to Continue the evidentiary Hearing to an alternate date as follows:

1. Undersigned Counsel has moved to enter her appearance to represent the Neighbors/Intervenors at the evidentiary Hearing, which was just scheduled for April 10th.
2. Unfortunately, the week of April 10th undersigned counsel is unavailable and will be traveling out of state for a close family member's committal service who recently deceased.
3. Consequently, Neighbors/Intervenors respectfully request a one week continuance to the week of April 17 in order to allow the pro se Neighbors/Intervenors to be adequately represented by Counsel at the evidentiary Hearing.
4. This request is made in good faith and if the other parties wish to similarly delay the subsequent deadlines in the case, Neighbors/Intervenors have no objection.

DATED at Randolph, County of Orange and State of Vermont this 8th day of March, 2023.
