WASHINGTON ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE, INC.'S
PROPOSED PLAN TO CREDIT OR REFUND REVENUE TEMPORARILY
COLLECTED IN EXCESS OF THE 12.83% RATE INCREASE

Pursuant to the Commission's Final Order Approving Reduced Rate Increase (May 19, 2023), Washington Electric Cooperative, Inc. (WEC) proposes for Commission approval the following plan to credit or refund revenues collected through the temporary surcharge in excess of the 12.83% rate increase:

1. WEC shall provide a one-time credit to all customers fully reflecting payments they made pursuant to the temporary surcharge (November 1, 2022 through May 31, 2023<sup>1</sup>) in excess of the approved 12.83% rate increase. This credit will be provided through the first full billing cycle that commences after Commission approval of WEC's plan.

2. WEC will mail checks to former members who made more than $1.00 in excess payments pursuant to the temporary surcharge.<sup>2</sup> Each check will reflect the full amount paid pursuant to the temporary surcharge (November 1, 2022 through May 31, 2023) in excess of the approved 12.83% rate increase. The checks will issue and be mailed within 30 days of the Commission's approval of WEC's plan.

<sup>1</sup> WEC is implementing the 12.83% rate increase starting in the first full billing cycle after the May 19, 2023 Final Order Approving Reduced Rate Increase. That billing cycle starts on June 1, 2023. WEC has one billing cycle per month. Bills are sent out in three batches over the course of a billing cycle.

<sup>2</sup> WEC anticipates that the total excess revenues from members who paid less than $1.00 in excess revenues to be in the range of $50 to $100.
