This bill is not going to work. It's going to blow up in everyone's face. We are not California. Look at California now. It's a disaster and getting worse every day. My nephew lives there now and is researching a move away. If this goes through I will be seriously considering moving away. I also smell corruption in this bill. This year I will be voting Republican 100% for the first time in my life. Thank you.
